GOV'R. CAN'T COME

UNABLE TO MEET ARKANSAS PARTY HERE TOMORROW

TRIP PLANS COMPLETE

Visitors Will Be Met at Burlington Junction at 10:15—At Maryville for Dinner In the Evening

Maryville men who will act as escort for Governor Chas. H. Brough of Arkansas and party in showing them the leading fine herds of cattle and hogs tomorrow are asked to meet at the Empire theatre at nine o'clock with their cars, going from there to Burlington Junction where the visitors will arrive at 10:15. Before leaving Maryville the cars will be tagged and assignments made for those who will make the trip. Geo. Robb Ellison and the committee in charge of entertainment have spent several days in perfecting the schedule for the day and about thirty cars will take the visitors to the various farms on the route.

Governor F. D. Gardner will be unable to come to Maryville tomorrow to welcome Governor Brough of Arkansas and the other visitors in the party, according to word received by George Robb Ellison this afternoon. Governor Gardner has requested President Lewis of the State Board of Agriculture to come as his representative, but no word has been received up to late this afternoon whether he will come.

Inasmuch as all the towns in the county may not be visited the mayors in all of the fourteen towns have been invited to Maryville to meet the visitors at dinner at the Bainum hotel at 7:45 in the evening.

Among the widely known men in the party, in addition to Governor Brough, are P. G. Holden, director of agricultural extension, International Harvester Co., of Chicago; J. D. Eldridge, president of the Arkansas Live Stock Growers Association; D. C. Welty, commissioner of agriculture for the Missouri Pacific railroad; Martin Nelson, dean of the Arkansas Agricultural College; E. J. Bodman, Little Rock, secretary Union Trust Co.; and chairman of Profitable Farming Bureau. Fifty-five persons compose the party.

"Boone Stop," Missouri Novel, Will Be Published Soon—To Go to France In July

Homer Croy, formerly of Maryville, who has since become well known as a magazine writer, has written a Missouri novel, "Boone Stop," which Harpers will publish in September. It is thought, says Croy, to be humorous.

Croy writes that he is dividing his time between writing novels and moving picture scenarios. He expects to sail for France July 15. His home address now is Forest Hills, Long Island.

Wanted
WALNUT LOGS

An appeal for our country as a whole.

We, the Penrod Walnut Veneer Co., of Kansas City, Mo., are the manufacturers of gunstocks and airplane propellers for the United States. This is one of the most practical needs for our army in France. The manufacturers of gunstocks are running short every day. There is a shortage of 3,500 per day. It is a fact that walnut is not so plentiful as it has been in past, but there is walnut enough in our country if the people would only respond as they should. It is not only a patriotic duty for you are getting value received for the timber. The valuation is the highest ever known. It is the highest timber market at present time. Why? Because the demand was never so great, and it is at its highest. Many people think, because they haven't a large number of trees that it wouldn't mean much, but, it will take every log of the diameter of 12 inches and up and if those who have walnut would notify our buyer, Beryl McClelland, P. O. Maryville, Mo., box 200 or our office.

This will be greatly appreciated by the mill and our government.

Respectfully,
Penrod Walnut Veneer Co.,
Kansas City, Mo.

TODAY LONGEST DAY OF YEAR

Sun Reaches a Point Farthest North, Then Will Journey South—December 21 Shortest Day

Today is the longest day in the year—that is, the interval between sunrise and sunset will be longer than on any other day in the year. This is the result of the annual inclination of the northern hemisphere toward the sun, which causes the sun to make an apparent trip north of the equator. As the farthest point north on that trip is reached today, it is clear that the sun will be closer to this part of the earth, and shine more directly upon it, than at any other time during the summer.

With the retreat of the sun toward the south the days will steadily grow shorter until, on September 21, the day and night will be of equal length. The days will continue to grow shorter until December 21, which is the day of the longest night and the shortest day. The sun reaches his farthest point south on that day. As he starts another northward journey the days will begin to grow longer again.

MANY EVADE DRAFT

APPEAL BOARDS URGE CHANGE IN DEPENDENCY RULES

CASE OF MARRIED MEN

Those Without Children Should Be Sent to Service, Is Opinion—Appeal Will be Made to Crowder

Jefferson City, June 21.—Members of the draft appeal boards of the state in their session here yesterday unanimously adopted a resolution asking for a modification of the regulations governing the classification of men claiming exemption upon the grounds they are the support of father, mother, or other relatives other than a wife and children. This will be forwarded to General Crowder.

Under the regulation as formulated by the provost marshal general such registrants were placed in III B.

It was the opinion of Louis Hoffmann of Sedalia, member of the board which has headquarters at Jefferson City, that if such cases were appealed to the district boards for investigation that in his jurisdiction alone enough men for a brigade could be obtained from that classification by moving up men put in III B who are not actually the support of their parents or brothers and sisters as claimed.

It was the expressed opinion of several members of the board that more men escape the army upon this class of exemption claims than in any other.

Says Thousands Escape.

Matt Hall of Saline county declared that thousands of men who escaped the draft through claiming to be the support of parents had, in fact, been supported by their parents and should be in the army.

The status of married men without children was discussed and before the meeting adjourns some definite rule will be adopted.

Hall declared that men who have married a number of years and are without children, when it would have been physically possible for them to have children, should go into the army. This class of men were first put into Class IV, but some of the boards have been moving them up to Class II B recently.

"I have told this class of married men that had I my way I would send them into the army and thus penalize them for their failure to raise children," Hall said.

Under a recent ruling by Provost Marshal Crowder all newly weds, that is, men married since May 18, 1917, who are without children, must go into Class 1.

The board debated the question of what income a married woman without children should have if her husband be drafted.

Suggests $50 for All Wives.

Dr. F. N. Matthews of Liberty desired to know whether the boards were ready to adopt a resolution fixing $50 as the deadline for all women, be they wives of men now earning large salaries or men earning small salaries.

Hall took the position that there should be no distinction and that the same rule should fit the rich as well as the poor.

"This is a time of sacrifice for everybody," he said.

A. T. Nelson of Lebanon, Shelden Spencer of St. Louis, Edward Higbee of Kirksville, J. D. Bowersock of Kansas City and Lieut. Col. J. H. McCord were appointed a committee of five to draft rules of procedure for the meeting so as to expedite its work.

FARM AGENTS DO GOOD WORK

Aid In Greater Food Production, Marketing of Live Stock and In Other War Problems

Washington, D. C., June 21. — The war emergency brought a great increase in the number of farmers, farm women, and boys and girls instructed by county agents of the United States Department of Agriculture and the State Agricultural colleges in problems of greater food production and conservation.

According to reports to the office of extension work south, of the States Relations Service, 363,723 farmers in the Southern States were reached during 1917 with definite demonstrations in the growing of crops, raising and feeding of live stock, marketing and other problems. The number of acres covered by the crop demonstrations alone in 1917 was 2,857,485. In addition to these a conservative estimate of the number of farms directly reached by the county agents in 1917 is 1,650,000. The figures represent about 60 per cent of all farms in the South.

Agents are giving advice and help in one way or another to nearly everyone with whom they come in contact, and the direct and indirect influence of the county agent's work and the proportion of the farmers reached is thought to be much higher than the figures given.

KENO-AT LAST-NEAR BEER JAG

If You Desire a Wallop In Your Frothy Drink Just Try a Few Raisins Next Time

Have you tried the near-beer jag? Can't get drunk on near-beer, you may have heard—but listen.

Some inventive genius possessed of an unquenchable thirst and practising the old-time proverb "necessity is the mother of invention," has made a discovery that enables those inclined to indulge in intoxicants to partake of a new alcoholic beverage that is really non-alcoholic.

The trick is done by opening a bottle of near-beer, distinguished for its lack of a real "kick," and inserting therein three or four raisins. The bottle is then recorked and in twenty-four hours the contents have taken on the desired strength.

The raisins do the work by the simple process of fermentation and—well the sales of near-beer are due for an increase. The "recipe" was brought to Maryville by a man recently returned from southern California where it was first used.

CRY "BREAD AND PEACE"

Fifty Thousand Take Part In Food Riots In Vienna—In Big Arsenal 100,000 Workmen Walk Out

London, June 21.—Fifty thousand persons crying for "bread and peace" took part in the food riots at Vienna, said an exchange telegraph dispatch from Zurich today. The police charged the mobs with drawn swords and bloody fighting followed. Many shops were pillaged and destroyed.

More than one hundred thousand persons have gone on strike in the Vulcan arsenal and the Warschalowski airplane works in Vienna.

The dispatch adds that riots have occurred in Favoriten, Margerethen, Ottakring and Brigittenay, suburbs of Vienna.

Amsterdam, June 21. — Discussing the inability of Germany to help Austria in her food difficulties, the Cologne Gazette says the bread ration in Germany will also have to be reduced until the next harvest.

For at least six weeks, says the Vienna Neue Freie Presse, the people of Austria will have to exist on little more than salads and certain vegetables.

A Vienna dispatch published in the Berlin Zeitung Ammittag gives an official statement of the Vienna city council on the food situation in that city. The statement reads:

"Germany promised some weeks ago in a state treaty to undertake responsibility for the meat supply for both the civilian population and the army, whether the supplies were drawn from Ukraine, Rumania or Germany's own reserve stock. Deliveries at first proceeded smoothly. For the past eight days, however, Germany has been in arrears of her quota."

The statement adds that urgent appeals have been sent to the German officials saying that the situation is acute, particularly in munition centers.

Messages arriving here from Germany and Austria make it clear the latest troubles in the dual monarchy over the food situation have never been equaled since the beginning of the war. The agitation is growing enormously, according to these dispatches.

IT IS ANOTHER GERMAN LIE

Statement by Berlin That Huns Penetrated American Lines Inflicting Heavy Loss Is Untrue

With the American Army in France, June 21. — The German war office statement issued Thursday claiming that German troops ha dpenetrated far into the American positions near Cicheprey "inflicting heavy losses on the enemy" is, plainly a lie. It evidently refers to the action at Bois de Remeres, Wednesday, in which sixty Germans taking part were repulsed.

It is evident the Germans are making every effort to counter attack the effect in Germany of American success in the Chateau Thierry district, consequently the American public may expect other similar statements from Berlin.

THEY DRILL LIKE VETERANS

The Battalion of Beauty, Sixty-seven Strong, Maneuvre Daily at the Great Lakes Training Camp

Great Lakes, Ill., June 21. — The American Jackiette has arrived. It is the "Battalion of Beauty," sixty-seven strong, that daily maneuvre on the squad ground here. Its personnel is taken from the staff of nurses at the base hospital. They go through various formations of regular drill practice with a precision and nicety that fill the hearts of the 35,000 insignificant bluejackets (male) with stinging envy.

As for Chief Quartermaster A. M. Angleson, who is drilling the "Beauties," never in his nautical life has he encountered such a stick-to-it bunch of rookies. They will drill, he says, for two hours, "dress right" as if born to it, and then not be fagged out when it's over.

TIDE TURNS FOR ITALIANS

AUSTRIANS ARE BEING PUSHED BACK AND ARE LOSING HEART TO BATTLE

ALLIED FORCES HOURLY BETTERING POSITIONS

In the Mountain Region the Enemy Has Remained Quiet Except When Forced to Go On Defensive—Still Fighting Along Piave

It is now evident that the Austro-Hungarian drive which started against the Allies seven days ago has turned from an offensive to a defensive one, the Austrians' crushing defeat being emphasized from day to day. Latest advices from the Italian theatre showed the Italians and their Allies attacking in force over the whole battle line and gaining everywhere.

It is estimated that the Austrians have lost close to fourteen divisions in killed, wounded and prisoners, and all they have gained is a precarious footing on the western bank of the Piave at several places and occupation of about a dozen square miles of blood-soaked ground. Heavy fighting has been taking place along the forty-mile stretch between Montello and the Adriatic.

Whether German reinforcements will be sent is an unanswered question as yet, but it is probable that it will be done. Internal conditions in Austria are now so disastrous that the German high command doubtless will give aid rather than see the Austrians sustain a worse defeat than already suffered.

The lull in infantry fighting on the fields of France continues. There have been minor operations, one of which was brilliantly carried out by Americans on the Toul front, but the main forces are still resting on their arms.

Rome, June 21.—The Italians and their Allies have not only withstood the shock of the Austrian offensive but are bettering their positions hourly. Heavy rain storms have increased the flooded conditions along the Piave, which is still further to the advantage of the Italians. In the hill region additional ground has been recaptured from the invaders, while along the Piave river, where intensive fighting is in progress at some points with fluctuating results, the balance toward ultimate victory seems to sway in favor of the Italian army.

South and east of Asiago the French and Italians in brilliant counter offensives have retaken Pennar, Bertigo and Costalunga, past which the Austrians had hoped to push their front and gain the Astico river valley, which leads to Vicenza on the plains below.

On their part over the entire mountain region the Austrians have remained quiet except when compelled to go on the defensive, and then their efforts to hold back their antagonists have lacked the stamina usual in men whose hearts are in their task. This condition has prevailed since the first onslaught of the enemy was summarily stopped by the fire of the British, French and Italian forces forming the barrier to the Venetian plains.

More heart is being thrown into the work by the enemy along the Piave from the Montello Plateau southward to the region lying east of Venice. Here he still seems, notwithstanding his heavy losses and numerous re-

The story itself is a fast-moving, unusual tale which carries the enthralled spectators from the mountains to the city and back to the mountains again. Miss Gordon's role in this production is one of the very best that she has ever had. Naturally she plays it with entrancing skill and ability. Proof that Some Women do Avoid Operations

Mrs. Etta Dorion, of Ogdensburg, Wis., says:

"I suffered from female troubles which caused piercing pains like a knife through my back and side. I finally lost all my strength so I had to go to bed. The doctor advised an operation but I would not listen to it. I thought of what I had read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and tried it. The first bottle brought great relief and six bottles have entirely cured me. All women who have female trouble of any kind should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

How Mrs. Boyd Avoided an Operation.

Canton, Ohio.—"I suffered from a female trouble which caused me much suffering, and two doctors decided that I would have to go through an operation before I could get well.

"My mother, who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, advised me to try it before submitting to an operation. It relieved me from my troubles so I can do my house work without any difficulty. I advise any woman who is afflicted with female troubles to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and it will do as much for them."—Mrs. MARIE BOYD, 1421 5th St., N. E., Canton, Ohio.

Draft Runaway Can Stop Only On Neutral Soil—Can Return and Escape Punishment

New York, June 21.—The department of justice is seeking information concerning men who went to foreign countries to escape service in the national army. These men will be brought back to the United States if possible, but whether caught or not their cases will be brought to the attention of federal grand juries and their indictment recommended. This means that no matter when the fugitive returns, even if it be years after the war has ended, he will be taken into custody and put on trial in the criminal branch of the federal court.

In announcing that the government was about to institute proceedings United States District Attorney Francis G. Caffey said:

"The department of justice receives from time to time information showing the residence in foreign countries of citizens of the United States who have escaped to those countries for the purpose of evading military service. Where the evidence warrants indictments will be asked in all cases of this kind, irrespective of whether there is immediate prospects of apprehending the defendants. The assistance of the public is invited to obtain proof of violations of this character.

"Statements of the fact, preferably in writing and signed, should be as definite and full as possible. If sent to the United States district attorney's office they will have prompt attention.

It is know that a large number of men of draft age have sought refuge in Mexico. It is doubtful if these men can be extradited, although it is understood that negotiations are under way looking to their return to American jurisdiction. One of these men who is known to be in Mexico is Charles Phillips, who fled when he was ordered to Camp Upton several weeks ago. Phillips was one of the first men to be convicted of entering into a conspiracy to obstruct the operation of the draft law. He was very prominent as an agitator among college men of pacifist leanings.

Men who have sought refuge in England or British colonies, France or other countries fighting in the war with the United States will be brought back. Those in neutral countries will probably escape extradition, but they will have to remain on neutral soil, for the moment they enter an ally country they will be taken into custody and turned over to American authorities.

The policy adopted by the government for the solution of the conscientious objector problem, which calls for the examination of all such persons by a federal board of inquiry has been endorsed by the national civil liberties bureau of 70, Fifty Avenue.

"The recent announcement of the government's final policy," says a statement issued by the bureau, "o dealing with conscientious objectors promises a satisfactory settlement of the whole issue without the public controversy which has marked it in England.

The board which will determine the status of all who claim exemption on conscience grounds is composed of Major Richard C. Stoddard, U. S. A., Dean Harlan F. Stone of the Columbia Law School, and Judge Julian W. Mack of Chicago.

The board will review the cases of about forty objectors, tried by court martial before the government's policy was clearly understood in the camps. Most of these men are now serving prison sentences of from ten to twenty years each. Wherever the military offense was due to genuine conscientious objection the men will receive a status as conscientious objectors and be removed from prison. Men who have not yet been sent to serve their sentences will be held in the camps until the board of inquiry passes upon them.

MARYVILLE WOMAN NOT WORRIED OVER FOOD SHORTAGE.

"I have lived on toast and water for over 6 months and have been scarcely able to eat anything for the past year. I began suffering from stomach trouble and bloating 5 years ago. A friend recommended Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and since taking 6 doses I feel I am entirely restored; even cabbage does not hurt me. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal muceous from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Maryville Drug Co.

United States soldiers get 20 ounces of beef daily. The other main ingredients of their fare are 18 ounces of flour, or 20 of corn meal, 20 ounces of potatoes and then smaller quantities of beans, sweets, dried fruits, coffee and relishes.

PLAN TO DISTRIBUTE WHEAT

Millers of Five States Meet In Conference—A Return to Old Toll Plan of Collecting Charges

St. Louis, June 21.—Plans of distributing the coming wheat crop were discussed at a meeting of the milling division of the United States food administration, which was attended by more than one hundred and fifty millers from all sections of Arkansas, Missouri, Illinois, Louisiana and Mississippi. Samuel S. Plant, chairman of the Missouri division, presided at the meeting.

A committee was appointed to attend a conference at the offices of the United States food administration in New York next week.

Plant explained there will be a return to the old toll plan of the miller collecting charges for grinding. He said that the miller will pay the farmer the fixed goverment price, then grind the wheat, charging 25 cents a bushel, or $1.10 on a barrel of flour.

Plant said that the prospect of the new harvest is 920,000,000 bushels. Last year 600,000,000 bushels was raised.

Jefferson City, June 21.—Adjutant General Clark has issued an order directing all home guard companies to take up the work of giving preliminary instruction to drafted men. It is hoped in this way to greatly expedite the training of the men. More than 80 per cent of the young men who received training at Kansas City have been appointed non-commissioned officers at Camp Funston.
